Make It Real

If you have something written down – an outline of your destiny of sorts, you are ahead of 99% of the people in the world today. Your plan will be the edge you walk on. But if you don't know how to walk or even how to start walking you'll never bring that dream or desire into reality. Practical how-to's on getting started and doing your call – walking in His perfect will – that's what you need. It's about action.

So let's look at some powerful some tools for "living the life."

Genesis 1:26 - Then God said let us make man in our image, according to our likeness

If you're going to achieve your destiny and live on it's edge, you have to do things correctly.
That would be God's way, of course. The verse above tells us we're made in the image of God, which means likeness. So let's see how He does things and do like He does. Sound simple? It is!

Vision

Hebrews 11:3 - By faith we understand that the worlds were prepared by the word of God, so that what is seen was not made out things which are visible.

When God created the universe He had a clear picture in His mind as to what He wanted. He saw everything in His imagination first and then created it. How do I know that? Because it's the same way we create things and we are the image of Him.

Basic logic.

Look about you right now. This book, the chair you're sitting on, your clothes, the light bulb – they all came from a picture in the imagination of a human being. Very little of value is created at the moment it comes into being – it was seen first. It was created from the invisible realm of thoughts and spirit, just as God created the universe from the invisible of His imagination. Grab hold of this truth if you want to live on the edge of your destiny – “you’ve got to see it before you can achieve it!”

Here’s My Story!

The revelation of this secret to living on the edge hit me like, well, a waterbed. I was helping my friend, a medical doctor, move into his new house. While assembling his water bed a heavy board slipped, hit me in the eyebrow and cut it open – requiring stitches. My friend took me to his office to sew me up. As he was stitching I asked him how hard it was to tie such small knots. He told me that in micro-surgery class the final exam was sewing 2 human hairs together end to end! I said, “Impossible!” He looked me in the face and replied, “Greenman, if you can see it, you can do it.”

That’s when it hit me! (no pun intended) You gotta’ see it to achieve it! See it in your sanctified imagination first – then create it! So simple. So easy. So easy to miss. And we all have missed it before. But now you can deliberately begin to daydream about your purpose and see it done. You can think about what it will look like, feel like, smell like, and then go do it! This goes back to the Prime The Pump worksheet and the language of the Holy Spirit. It's all about visual, pictorial, imagination set in motion by the Lord. It's about Biblical meditation.

Joshua 1:8 -This book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, being careful to do according to all that is written in it, for then you will make your way prosperous and then you shall have success.

Meditation is simply thinking about what the Lord told you. That means His written word, the Bible, and of course His personal call, appointment, and words to you. You continually sit and think about what the end result will look like, and all the parts in between, until you are so saturated with those visions you can't possibly believe anything else. Once you get to that solid place of belief, you will make your way successfully! You will live on the edge of your destiny with confidence and faith.

Words

2 Corinthians 4:13 - But having the same spirit of faith, according to what is written, “I believe therefore I spoke,” we also believe, therefore we also speak.

Matthew 12:34 - ...for the mouth speaks out of that which fills the heart.

Once you start seeing the purpose God has given you - what it looks like - you'll need to begin to say what you see. Not out of your head to try and get God to move, but out of your heart because you can't do anything else. You'll simply overflow.

Your heart is the seed bag for your words and your words are the seeds of what you believe. You plant the seeds by saying them. Whatever you fill your seed bag with is all that can come out. That's why God said to meditate on His words to you, not yours or someone else's. He wants your heart filled with seeds of belief, faith and hope. He wants you to see your purpose and destiny so clearly that your heart, your seed bag is overflowing with it! The edge is all you see, so it's all you say.

Once you fill your heart like that, the only thing you can do is say that you believe it. That's how I was with this ebook and the tools on our GPS7.org website. I saw them for months before they were a reality, some of it I saw for years! There was no doubt in my heart or mind about it. I never let anything else get into my heart about it. The only seeds I've ever planted have been seeds of power-filled belief. Here are some other verses for you to study:

Romans 10:10 / Proverbs 18:21 /
James 3:2-5

Hebrews 4:12 - The word of God is living and active and sharper than any two edge sword, and piercing as far as the division of the soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow, and able to judge* the thoughts and intentions of the heart.

There is amazing power inside the Word of God. It is more powerful than you or I can possibly imagine. It is God Himself! God is His Word! When we take the Word of God into our spirit and meditate upon it until it becomes part of our every thought, our words will flow in line with His word. When that happens you will release His power as you speak. The power you release is the very creative power that formed the universe! But even words aren't the whole package.

Acts

There is no "Dreams of the Apostles," or "Desires of the Apostles" or even "Ideas of the Apostles" - there is only the book of "The Acts of The Apostles."

Lip service is not enough. Saying something a million times isn't all it takes to achieve your destiny. You must do something.

You must act. You must prove you mean business with God and do something. Jesus rebuked some who followed Him, saying to them, “Why do you call me Lord when you don’t even do what I tell you?” In James chapter 2 God said that faith without works is no more productive than a body without a spirit – it’s DEAD! I want living faith. I want to achieve the purpose God ordained for me. I want to live on the edge, not just imagine the edge, not just talk about it. What about you?

Here's My Story!

I was never satisfied with doing what everyone else did. I was always looking for a new twist. One day, while thinking about my slackwire act (during my time at Florida State University's Flying High Circus) I had an idea flash into my head – “Why not run on the wire?” I liked that! No one was doing that, nor had anyone done so before in Flying High that I knew of. Everyone before me had simply walked very slowly because it was so difficult to balance on.

During the next practice session, as I set up my rig, I pictured myself running back and forth across the wire. I began to sing a fast tune in my head while picturing myself running on the wire from end to end, over and over. I played this mental movie again and again for several minutes and then got up on the wire to give it a go.

I took 2 or three quick steps and fell off with a smack! on the wooden stage. [Fortunately for me slackwire is performed only 6 or 7 feet in the air!] I got back up and tried again. Smack! - same result. And again - Smack! And again - Smack! And again - Smack!! Smack!! Smack!! I must have fallen 40 -50 times that day, but I never once felt discouraged because I had a vision of what I wanted do! I'd seen it done in my imagination – I had no doubt! I knew I would do it.

The circus director finally asked me that night what the matter was, because I never fell on that act. I told him what I was trying to do and he simply shrugged and said something like,

“that figures,” and left me alone. It took me about a week or so to master running on the wire. It added an excitement to my act that had not been there previously. It kindled a new confidence in me. I also learned another lesson - be willing to look foolish while going for your goals!

Repetition Is Your Greatest Teacher

I have found that consistent, repetitive action is what develops skill. The story above illustrates that. It's not necessary to have extreme talent - just extreme patience and the guts to press through all barriers until you succeed. I must have run on that slackwire thousands of times before I actually had it mastered.

I learned to apply that principle to other areas of my life as well. I sang for years in secret before I gained the confidence to sing before an audience. I studied for hundreds of hours to deliver a few minutes of Biblical teaching. I paddled and swam many miles before becoming a skilled surfer. I wrote thousands of words only I would ever see before sending my first manuscript to a publisher.

It is repetition which trains us best. As my favorite movie hero, Indiana Jones said, “It aint the years, it’s the mileage.” It’s not how many years you’ve been doing something, it’s how many repetitions. I’ve had many people tell me I learn things quickly, but they never see the private hours I spend alone grinding out the learning experience to gain the skills.

As you step out upon edge of your destiny, you will need many skills, but the first skill you must develop is that of accepting the hard work of repetition as your instructor, mentor, teacher and friend. Nothing is free! Be a doer. Be a committed, skilled doer!

The Living Edge

See it - Say it – Do it. Those are the keys to living on the edge, achieving all God has for you. You can't ignore any one of this trio. Don't neglect them. You need all three to succeed. They're not hard – they're easy to do. But they're easy not to do also, because of laziness, distractions, and the daily deals of life. But when you master them you will be living on the EDGE with more confidence than you've ever known! And as you use these keys you'll find some very interesting things will begin to happen to you – miracles will happen for you.
